

Leave the Wisconsin No-Call List alone. In fact, the federal no-call list should be strengthened. Banks do not need anymore ability to invade our lives. I receive daily unsolicited snail mail from banks and credit card vendors, keep them off my phone line. Why is it that only businesses, with large pocketbooks have any rights?